

Income Cover

Income Cover provides a financial safety net should you be disabled as a result of sickness or injury, and unable to earn your regular income. The monthly benefit is designed to replace a significant portion of lost income to help maintain your usual lifestyle during treatment and recovery.

Unable to work

Income Cover pays a monthly Total Disability Benefit if you are disabled and unable to work, from the end of the selected waiting period till you return to work or the end of your cover term. You may be entitled to a Partial Disability Benefit if you go back to work but you are not able to work full time.

Benefit agreed upfront or assessed at claim

There are four options when applying for Income Cover, these effect when your income will be assessed. You have the choice to provide financial evidence at application time to obtain the Income Cover type Agreed Value or Taxable Agreed Value or Agreed Loss of Earnings, which is not then financially assessed again at claims time. Alternatively, you can choose to purchase the Income Cover type Indemnity Loss of Earnings which will be calculated based on the income you can prove you were earning just before becoming disabled.

Partners Life's Income Cover provides you with the flexibility to structure your plan to most closely suit your needs. You have a choice of six waiting periods, the period of time before your monthly Income Cover claim payment begins after becoming disabled; either 4, 8, 13, 26, 52, or 104 weeks. Your adviser will assist you to understand the implications of these options to enable you to make the best choice for your personal circumstances.

Even your monthly claim payments, if you are receiving any will increase. These increases apply irrespective of any changes to your health after your Income Cover starts.

You also have an option to set a minimum inflation rate of 5% so even when the inflation rate falls below this level your Income Cover sum insured will still increase by 5%.

You can choose to decline any increase in any given year without losing the automatic increase in following years, so you really have the best of both worlds – automatic rights to increase with no obligation to do so.
